

2 for 1 on VIP Day 5 December

---

Cultural Offers from Handel House Museum

This offer is available Sat, 05 December 2009

---

VIP Day - Saturday 5 December

Only a stone's throw from Bond Street tube station, Handel House is an 18th-century haven from Oxford Street and a landmark address. From 1723 to 1759, the composer Handel lived and composed his greatest works here including the world-famous Messiah. A beautifully restored Georgian townhouse, the Museum takes you on a journey through Handel's life and music. The Museum's shop sells CDs and books about Handel as well as Handel House gifts and Christmas cards.

- * 2-for-1 admission to Handel House Museum (please bring voucher to claim your admission offer)
- * 20% off Handel House Christmas cards (please bring voucher to claim your discount)
- * 20% off the brand new Handel House Museum CD 'Streams of Pleasure', a compilation of Handel's works featuring domestic musical offerings to iconic operatic extracts. CD price normally £10 (please bring voucher to claim your discount)
- * 2-for-1 tickets to a special 'Christmas Through the Ages' concert featuring traditional carols with leading London chamber choir Pegasus on 13 December at Grosvenor Chapel. (normally £13 or £11 concession). Vouchers only available on 5 December from the Handel House reception.

---

The Handel House Museum, 25 Brook Street

Mayfair

London W1K 4HB

<http://www.handelhouse.org>

---

Terms and Conditions

Please bring voucher with you on 5 December to redeem your offers.

---

For more great offers visit - www.westendvip.com